Project structure (WPs description):

WP1 Nudges set-up, lab experiments and analysis: implements the tasks related to behavioural economics (design of nudges, implementation and analysis of related lab experiments, building of the Multi-agent model (considering the feedback from lab experiments))

WP2 Econometric models and their application: applies the econometric methods to estimate water demand functions of the households, builds the micro-simulation model

WP3 Dashboard and Evaluations: includes the tasks needed to assess targeted local DSM policies

WP4: Simulation models and Guidelines: consolidates the outcomes from previous tasks into simplified micro-simulation models, pedagogical sheets and methodological guidelines and procedures to facilitate exploitation of the developed tools and models

WP5 Nudge case studies: implementation of the field experiments (Saint Paul, Gijon, Sfax); analysis of households/stakeholders feedbacks

WP6 Dissemination communication training and exploitation: implements actions to reach out all Stakeholders as well as the civil society

WP7 Project coordination & management: assures project coordination and management
